The fee to join IMSA is a voluntary contribution; it is hoped each Men's Shed would contribute at least €25 for a yearly subscription where it can be afforded by the group. This will entitle members to:

- Interaction and assistance from the Irish Men's Sheds Association
- Promotion of your Men's Shed via our website and publicity material
- Membership deals – discounted deals with our partners

It is regulation that every Men's Shed has adequate insurance;
(Please indicate here how your Men's Shed is covered by marking X in the box provided)

IMSA recommended insurance with BHP insurance
Group insurance under the policy of another organisation (e.g. a local development company, City or County Council)
Individual insurance policy with another insurance broker.

Cheques or postal orders can be made payable to The Irish Men's Sheds Association.
